ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that:

3. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue, renew, replace, modify and/or terminate such of their Customer Programs as they deem appropriate, in their discretion, and in the ordinary course of business, without further application to the Court.

4. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, in their sole discretion and in the ordinary course of business, to continue processing credit card transactions pursuant to their merchant card processing agreements without further application to the Court, and the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is hereby modified to the extent (and only to the extent) necessary to permit such transactions.

The authority granted herein to continue the Customer Programs and to perform under the merchant card processing agreements shall not create any obligation on the part of the Debtors or their officers, members, attorneys or agents to pay obligations under the Customer Programs or merchant card processing agreements, and none of the foregoing persons shall have any liability on account of any decision by the Debtors not to pay or provide credits under the Customer Programs or the merchant card processing agreements, and nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to affect the status or otherwise affect the payments provided under the Customer Programs or the merchant card processing agreements to the extent they are not paid.

6. Neither the provisions contained herein, nor any actions or payments made by the Debtors pursuant to this Order, (i) shall be deemed an assumption or adoption of any policy, program, practice, contract or agreement, or shall otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code to assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease; or (ii) shall be deemed an admission as to the validity of the underlying obligation or a waiver of any rights the Debtors may have to subsequently dispute such obligation on any ground that applicable law permits.

7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, payments made pursuant to this Order shall be subject to (i) any requirements imposed on the Debtors under any order entered by the Court approving postpetition financing and/or the use of cash collateral and (ii) any budget approved in connection therewith.

10. The Debtors are authorized and empowered to take all actions necessary to implement the relief granted in this Order.

11. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over any and all matters arising from or related to the implementation or interpretation of this Order.
